

Powering Great Workplaces® with personal benefits employees value

CHANNELING HEALTHY AND HAPPY IN A SINGLE APP

Electrify employee well-being and create consistent engagement with unlimited challenges, wellness communities, on-demand and live well-being and fitness classes, events, and access to our wellness partner network

Device-connected and agnostic

Ensure your employees have access to the apps and devices they love. Espresa intelligently tracks activities, from self-reported activities like volunteering, hydration, and annual health checkups, to app-connected devices to track steps, movement, and sleep.

Making heroes out of HR teams

- Launch innovative well-being and integrated programs with record engagement metrics and member satisfaction scores you can rely on
- Create incentivized wellness wallets with Lifestyle Spending Accounts or LSA Plus™ - employees can earn funds for completing tasks
- Attract and retain talent with benefits that meet global employees wherever they are - in office, hybrid, and virtually

Designed for HR by HR

Espresa's well-being platform removes the administrative burden with the first multi-layered solution for well-being, challenges, events management, wellness communities, and partners. Now HR can focus benefits initiatives on a single app to align with core culture pillars while transparently reporting on culture gains with real-time analytics.

Engagement built in

"Employees expect typical health benefits, but adding a well-being program from Espresa packs more punch than any other platform on the market. With LSAs, earned allowances, and challenges added, they've proven their well-being app delivers on what employees love to engage with."

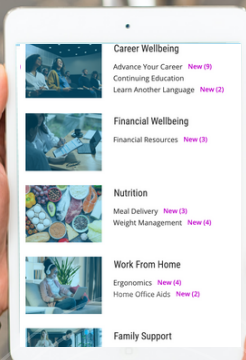

Nancy Vitale
Fortune 500 Chief People Officer
